

Important NOTICE for the candidate who appeared in the Paper-II of Sub-Inspectors in CAPFs and Delhi Police
Examination, 2015 held on 30.08.2015 (AN)

It has come to notice of the Commission that in some of the Question Booklets, a particular passage was not printed. However the Questions which were related to the passage were printed as below :

Question Dialects are popularly perceived as :

- A) refined forms of languages. B) corrupted forms of languages.
C) languages used in the government offices. D) languages without grammars.

Question A standard language is wrongly considered to be linguistically 'better' just because –

- A) it is a dialect spoken by common people B) it is a dialect officially adopted by the government.
C) it is a dialect with an inferior vocabulary. D) it is a dialect with an unsystematic grammar.

Question All English dialects have links with :

- A) the speech of Scandinavian and Germanic invaders of Britain. B) only with those who originally lived in Britain.
C) the Egyptians. D) none of the above.

Question Find the word closest in meaning to "ignorant" :

- A) uneducated B) aristocratic
C) refined D) knowledgeable.

Question The Germanic invaders occupied Britain during the

- A) Recent times. B) Nineteenth century
C) Post world war I period D) Middle Ages.

Due to the aforesaid error in the printing it has been decided that all candidates who had appeared in the examination would be awarded marks for the above referred Questions irrespective of whether he/she had attempted the said Questions.