to the prescribed standards of the First Party.

- d) The Second Party shall be responsible for ensuring the proper conduct and behavior of the Helpline Operator deployed and shall exercise effective control and supervision to ensure that their activities are not in any way detrimental to the interests or functioning of the First Party. The Second Party shall replace the Helpline Operator within 24 hours upon request by the First Party or its authorized representatives, without assigning any reason.
- e) The First Party reserves the right to instruct the Helpline Operator of the Second Party to vacate the premises of the First Party at any time if in its opinion, his/her presence is considered undesirable.

6. DISCIPLINE

- a) The Second Party may issue identity cards to its Helpline Operators. The First Party may verify IDs and may deny entry to Operators without proper identification.
- b) The Helpline Operator must not leave the deployment premises without permission from the First Party /Second Party.
- c) The Second Party has sole authority to discipline its staff. Operators cannot raise employment claims against the First Party. The First Party is not the employer and is not liable for any claims from the Operator.

7. NATURE OF AGREEMENT

The parties hereto mutually agree and understand the following:

- a) This Agreement pertains to the provision of Helpline Services as outlined above. It is clearly understood by the Second Party that the personnel engaged by it for rendering the said services shall not be construed as employees, agents, or representatives of the First Party under any circumstances. The Helpline Operator(s) deployed by the Second Party shall have no claim or right to employment, absorption/regularization or any concession or relaxation for such purposes with the First Party. The selection, appointment and payment of Helpline Operator(s) shall be the sole responsibility of the Second Party, which shall ensure timely disbursement of wages to its personnel.
- b) The First Party shall not be held liable for any contractual, legal or statutory obligations/responsibilities towards the employees or agents of the Second Party, either directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever.
- c) The Personnel deployed by the Second Party for rendering services under this Agreement shall never be deemed to be employees of the First Party and shall not be entitled to claim employment, wages, damages, compensation or any other benefits from the First Party arising out of or in connection with such deployment.

8. STATUTORY COMPLIANCES

- a) Second Party shall obtain all necessary registration(s), permissions(s) and license(s) etc. required under applicable labour laws or other statutory provisions for the purpose of providing services under this Agreement.
- b) It shall be the sole responsibility of the Second Party to ensure compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations of the Central and State Government in relation to the services under this Agreement. The Second Party shall indemnify and keep the First Party indemnified against all losses, damages, claims, penalties or actions initiated by any Authority in this regard.

- c) The Second Party undertakes to comply with the applicable labour and welfare legislations including but not limited to the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolishment) Act, 1970, if applicable. The Second Party shall further ensure adherence to all government laws regarding the employment of its personnel and shall be responsible for making all due payments, including wages, to its staff as required under the law. It is expressly understood that the Second Party shall be fully responsible for ascertaining the applicability of various statutes and for ensuring compliance therewith.
- d) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to create or imply any relationship of employer-employee, master-servant or principal-agent between the First Party and the Personnel deployed by the Second Party.
- e) All Parties agree and acknowledge that there is no representation, express or implied of any automatic absorption, regularization, continued engagement, concession or preference for future employment of the personnel engaged by the Second Party in any office or establishment of the First Party.
- f) The Second Party further declares that this Agreement does not constitute employment with the First Party, nor does it confer any rights of employment or expectation thereof on the part of the Second Party or its personnel in any office or establishment of the First Party.
- g) The Second Party shall at all times indemnify and keep indemnified the First Party/Government against any claims arising out of injury, accident, or damage caused to its personnel or any third party, resulting from or in connection with the services rendered or operations conducted under this Agreement.
- h) The Second Party shall promptly notify the First Party/Government of any material changes in its ownership, shareholding, management, or that of any Guarantor, particularly where such changes may have a bearing on the performance of obligations under this Agreement.

9. INDEMNIFICATION

- a) The Second Party shall, at its own cost, make good any loss or damage suffered by the First Party as a result of any act of commission or omission, whether negligent or otherwise, by its Helpline Operator(s) while providing services at any premises of the First Party or in connection with the services under this Agreement.
- b) The Second Party shall at all times indemnify and hold harmless the First Party from and against any claim arising out of disability or death of any Helpline Operator engaged by the Second Party while performing services either within or outside the premises of the First Party. This includes, but is not limited to, claims made under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, or any other applicable law or statutory modification thereof, or any claims for damages or compensation under labour laws or rules by any such Operator, whether employed by the Second Party or otherwise, and whether engaged in services at the premises of the First Party or elsewhere.
- c) The Second Party shall also indemnify and keep indemnified the First Party from any claim made by any third party in respect of injury, damage to property or person, or any other loss caused due to any act of commission or omission by the Helpline Operator(s) or employees of the Second Party during the course of providing the services, whether such acts occur during, before, or after service hours and whether at the premises of the First Party or elsewhere.

- d) If, at any time during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, the First Party is made liable by any court, authority, or tribunal to pay any amount in respect of or to any present or former employee of the Second Party, or to any third party (including but not limited to claims as outlined in sub-clauses (a), (b), and (c) above), the Second Party shall immediately indemnify and reimburse the First Party for the full amount so paid, including any associated costs. The First Party's determination in such matters shall be final and binding on the Second Party. The First Party shall further be entitled to recover such amounts from the Security Deposit and/or any pending bills of the Second Party.

10. LIABILITIES AND REMEDIES

In the event the Second Party fails to provide the services or any part thereof for any reason whatsoever, the First Party shall be entitled to arrange for the services from alternative sources at the risk and cost of the Second Party. The Second Party shall be liable to immediately reimburse the First Party for any additional cost incurred, including the difference in payment made to such alternative sources, in addition to liquidated damages at twice the agreed rate of payment.

10. 1 LOSSES SUFFERED/CAUSED BY SECOND PARTY

- a) The Second Party shall not be entitled to claim any losses, damages, costs, expenses, or liabilities arising out of the performance or non-performance of services under this Agreement if such loss or damage is caused due to its own acts or omissions, including the negligence, default, or errors in judgment of its personnel/Helpline Operator(s).
- b) Any loss or damage to the property of the First Party caused due to negligence, misconduct or default of the Helpline Operator(s) deployed by the Second Party shall be borne entirely by the Second Party.

11. TERM

This Agreement shall initially remain in force for a period of two (2) years effective from the date of deployment of the Helpline Operator by the Second Party. The term may be extended by the First Party on an annual basis for a further period of up to two (2) years subject to exigencies with mutual consent and on such terms and conditions as may be deemed fit and proper by the First Party.

12. TERMINATION

The First Party reserves the right to terminate this Agreement at any time by giving one (1) month's notice in writing, without assigning any reason. The Agreement may also be terminated forthwith if the services rendered by the Second Party are found to be unsatisfactory.

13. ASSIGNMENT OF AGREEMENTS

This Agreement is executed based on the current ownership and management structure of the Second Party. Any assignment, transfer or subletting in whole or in part to any third party without the prior written consent of the First Party shall constitute grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement.

14. SERVICE OF NOTICES

Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered if sent by registered post/speed post/courier/email to the respective addresses of the Parties as mentioned below or such other addresses as may be notified in writing:

15. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Second Party acknowledges that it may have access to confidential or proprietary information of the First Party during the course of this Agreement. The Second Party undertakes that it shall not, without the prior written consent of the First Party, disclose, publish, or otherwise make available any such information to any third party, or use it for any purpose other than for the performance of this Agreement. This clause shall survive for a period of five (5) years following the expiry or earlier termination of this Agreement.

16. AMENDMENT/MODIFICATION

This Agreement may be amended or modified only by mutual written consent of both Parties. Any such amendment shall be reduced to writing and duly signed by the authorized representatives of both the First Party and the Second Party.

17. CAPTIONS

The headings or captions used in this Agreement are for reference and convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of any provisions of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the captions and the substantive text, the text shall prevail.

18. WAIVER

Any indulgence, forbearance, relaxation, or concession granted by the First Party shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under this Agreement, nor shall it alter or invalidate any of the terms or provisions herein. The failure of the First Party to enforce, at any time, any provision of this Agreement or to require performance by the Second Party of any provision shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provision, nor shall it affect the validity of this Agreement or any part thereof, or the right of the First Party to subsequently enforce each and every provision. Any waiver must be expressly made in writing and signed by the authorized representative of the First Party.

19. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be held liable for failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement if such failure is caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to: acts of God, natural disasters, war, civil disturbances, strikes, lockouts, acts of terrorism, epidemics, pandemics, or orders or restrictions imposed by governmental or public authorities. In such cases, the affected Party shall notify the other Party in writing as soon as reasonably practicable, and performance under the Agreement shall be suspended for the duration of the Force Majeure event.

20. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND GOVERNING LAW/JURISDICTION

- a) Any dispute or difference arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, including its existence, validity, interpretation, application, performance, breach, or termination, shall first be referred to the Appellate Authority, i.e., the Regional Director, SSC (SR) for resolution.
- b) If the dispute remains unresolved, it shall be referred to and finally resolved by a Sole Arbitrator to be appointed by the Regional Director, SSC (SR) or any Competent Authority. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 or any statutory modifications or re-enactments thereof.
- c) The arbitration shall be conducted in the English language, and the venue of the arbitration shall be Chennai. The award of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding, and conclusive on both Parties.
- d) In the event the appointed Arbitrator is unable or unwilling to act, a substitute Arbitrator shall be appointed by the Regional Director, SSC (SR) / Competent Authority, and the substitute Arbitrator shall proceed with the reference from the stage left by the predecessor.
- e) The Courts located in Chennai alone shall have exclusive jurisdiction to entertain any application or proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or with the arbitral award, if required to be filed.

21. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

In addition to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the provisions contained in the tender document and any annexures, schedules or correspondence forming part of the tender process shall also form an integral part of this Agreement and shall be deemed to be incorporated herein by reference.
